Materials:

Seed beads size 11/0 in orange silverline, brown silverline and opaque black

The middle part is made in evencount Peyote. The beads with red dots are my first and second row of peyote.

The side parts are made with diagonal brick stitch (increasing on one side, decreasing on the other). The beads with just a point of colour are the existing beads of the middle part.

Many thanks to Beadyboop (<http://www.beadyboop.com>) who gave her consent to use her idea of a combination of diagonal brick stitch and peyote in my pattern.
